HISTORY

On the 12th January 1941 Carmel Girls' Inter College then known as St. Mary's School, was started. It began as a Primary School with English as its medium of instruction. The sisters lived along with the boarders in St. Joseph's church compound. In July 1945 class VII was opened with the idea of preparing the students for the Senior Cambridge but due to the political situation, had to be changed to matriculation.

In 1957 the medium of instruction for Cl. VI-X was changed over to Hindi and the school was recognized and got affiliated to the U.P. Board, Allahabad. St. Mary's was renamed 'CARMEL' in 1970 and in 1971 we opened Intermediate classes in response to growing pressure. We were granted recognition for Arts in 1972 and for Science in 1973.

Carmel Girls' Inter College is administered by the Apostolic Carmel Educational Society of U.P. in the Roman Catholic Church. The College is under the religious jurisdiction of the Catholic Bishop of Gorakhpur.
